P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the Armed Forces of the United States are the mighty sword of our Nation in war and the faithful shield of our democratic people in times of peace; and

WHEREAS, the many tasks, including Civil Defense, assigned to the Armed Forces are the responsibility of and carried out by both the active and inactive forces; and

WHEREAS, our American way of life, our resources and our very future depend upon a strong, well informed and responsive public; and

WHEREAS, I believe it proper and traditional to bring to the attention of all citizens of this State the personal sacrifices made by the members of our Armed Forces and their dependents during the many emergencies, both National and State.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 19, 1962 as in order to render suitable honor to members of the Armed Forces of the United States, both past and present.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of South Dakota to be affixed this 2nd day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.
